

2.1.1 Academic Integrity Policy

Dutchess Community College is committed to the principles of honesty, integrity, and ethical behavior. It is expected that students will recognize these values and adhere to all aspects of student conduct and academic honesty inside and outside of the classroom.

Academic dishonesty in any form is regarded by the College as a breach of academic ethics and may result in disciplinary action.

Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Cheating on examinations

- Plagiarism: the representation of another's ideas or writing as one's own. Examples include:
  - presenting all or part of another person's published work as something one has written;
  - paraphrasing or summarizing another's writing without proper acknowledgement (citation);
  - representing another's artistic or technical work or creation as one's own.

- Willingly collaborating with others in any of the above actions which result(s) in work being submitted which is not the student's own.

- Stealing examinations, taking electronic images, falsifying academic records and other such offenses.

- Knowingly permitting another student to use one's work or cheat from Submitting work previously presented in another course without permission of instructor.

- Unauthorized duplication of computer software.

- Unauthorized use of copyrighted or published material.

If, based on substantial evidence, an instructor deems that a student is responsible for a violation of the Academic Integrity Policy, the instructor may take the following actions:

- The instructor may require that the student repeat the assignment or examination, or

- The instructor may give the student a failing grade for the assignment or examination, or

- The instructor may give the student a failing grade for the course.

As an institution of higher education, it is incumbent on the College to ensure that students understand and uphold the highest standards of academic honesty and that there be accountability in cases where students repeatedly violate those principles. In order to build an intellectual culture of academic integrity and ensure that students learn appropriate behavior in their academic endeavors, faculty and staff who judge that a student intentionally violates the Academic Integrity Policy shall report said violation to the Office of Academic Affairs.

Students' right to privacy will be upheld, and all students shall have the right to appeal any action that results from this process. Approved by Board of Trustees Resolution #2020-31, dated February 25, 2020
