General Education Information

- Students who have not completed the SUNY Gen Ed Requirements must complete Oswego’s Gen Ed program.
- Some courses taken at 2-year school will not transfer as upper division credit at Oswego.
- Several courses may be given equivalencies only as lower division credit.

Note:
Be aware that all credits in communication-related fields will add to the 54 hour cap at Oswego and could extend your stay.

Majors

Broadcasting & Mass Communication

This major is designed to provide students with an understanding of the mass media industries, including radio, television, cable, film, the Internet, multimedia, and mobile platforms.

Journalism

This highly desired major allows students to explore the various ways human beings interact and exchange ideas. Students analyze the process of creating, sending, and interpreting verbal and nonverbal messages and how those messages are influenced by gender, culture, and ethics.

Communications & Social Interaction

Students in this program explore the relationships that an organization builds with its employees, consumers, government, investors, donors, and community. It specifically explores how this relationship is related to the company’s success.

Music

Under advisement based on career goals and areas of Writing & Editing, Electronic News, Graphic Design, or Investigative Methods.

Additional Learning Agreement Coursework: 18-36 cr.
